Opioid Settlement Logic Model

Years 5-7

Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Short-Term Outcomes	Intermediate outcomes	Long-term outcomes

Funding is needed for:
- Benefits and Salary for Staff
- Trainings
- Cards, Bags, and Apparel
- Handouts and Educational Material
- Advertising
- MAT Program
- Buprenorphine
- Lifestyle Medicine Program
- RSSS Comprehensive Substance Use Prevention Curriculum
- MAT Prenatal Program

Resources are needed for:
- Advertisement for Open Positions
- Holding Applicant Interviews
- Staff Training
- Hosting Trainings
- Handouts and Educational Materials
- Advertisements
- MAT Program
- Lifestyle Medicine Program
- RSSS Comprehensive Substance Use Prevention Curriculum
- MAT Prenatal Program

Strategic Community Partnerships
- Emergency Services

Activities

Hiring for:
- Family Medicine Physician

Establish a Medication Assisted Treatment Program at the Rowan County Health Department

Create partnerships with:
- RSSS
- Local organizations
- CHA Sun Clinic

6-12th grade students in Rowan County School System will recieve a comprehensive substance use prevention education curriculum

Establish a Lifestyle Medicine program for MAT program participants

Rowan County Public Health will developed a MAT Prenatal Program

Community Paramedics will begin implementing field administered Buprenorphine as a bridge to the MAT program

Outputs

Policies and Procedures will be developed based on Federal Guidelines

Referral network is developed for community organizations to refer patients

Mobile Unit will be implemented to increase access to MAT

Longitudinal study will be conducted with MAT participants to measure changes in SES status upon participation MAT

Variety of EBI's in the school system that aim at reducing substance use of all kinds among youth

Partnerships with local organizations to host cooking and nutrition classes, and physical activity facilities to sponsor individuals to be able to exercise in safe locations

Partnership with CHA Sun Clinic and Carolina Women's Health

Collaborate and partner with public health departments to provide wrap around services

Partnership created with Emergency Services to provide training on Buprenorphine administration when responding to an overdose incident

Referral to MAT program from EMS after the first dose of Buprenorphine is adminsitered

Establish policies and procedures created to assure best practices when adminsitering Buprenorphine

Short-Term Outcomes

Increase in the number of community organizations that refer to MAT

Increase the number of Rowan County individuals who live with Opioid Use Disorder that have access to MAT

Return of Investment of MAT will be identified

Increase in knowledge of the risks using substances

Increase the feeling of self-efficacy of MAT program participants by establishing new skills

Increase in knowledge pregnant individuals have about the effects of substance use

Increase the knowledge of healthy pregnancies

Increase the number of EMS personnel that can adminster Buprenorphine through skills training

Intermediate outcomes

Increase in the number of people who have a Substance Use Disorder recieving MAT

Decrease in the number of students who report trying substances for the first time or using substances in general

Reduce the number of MAT participants that bcome obese as a result of sobriety

Increase of preganant individuals recieving prenatal care

Increase the number of MAT partipants at the Health Department

Long-term outcomes

Reduce the rate of relapse among people who have a Substance Use Disorder

Reduce the number of neonatal anstinence syndrome cases

Increase the rate of healthy pregnancies

Reduce the number of repeat overdoses by connecting individuals to MAT

Reduce the fatality rate of overdoses